

Archives Irish Examiner

HOME → SEARCH BY DATE → SEARCH BY KEYWORD → CLIPBOARD  HELP →

TCM Archives > Irish Examiner > 2008/06/19 > Digital research projects gain €2m

Thursday, June 19, 2008 :

FRONT | IRELAND | SPORT | WORLD | BUSINESS | OPINION

Digital research projects gain €2m

THE National Digital Research Centre (NDRC) has announced €2m in funding for six new projects.

One of the new projects — HealthPhone — is a web-based system to support management of chronic illnesses, using mobile technology in the home to measure and report on vital patient data.

Front | Back

Home | Search by date | Search by keyword | Clipboard | Help | Contact

© Irish Examiner - Thomas Crosbie Media - Thomas Crosbie Holdings, Ireland, 2008.